

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Greetings in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

I am happy to inform you that we sent the final report on the Special Appeal which started as a result of the 25 January 2011 Revolution in Egypt. You have generously given and prayed fervently for the lives of Muslims and Christians affected by the Revolution. We thank the Lord for this witness, and I thank God for you. For your sacrifice and for this offering of love.

Please find attached our report for the last three weeks (42-44) as well as photographs and signature pages. While this is the final report, we will send further reports in order to keep you apprised to the situation.

I would like to also thank Mrs. Mariam Ibrahim and Mr. Raouf Zekry who were instrumental in organizing the Special Appeal, and to all of the managers of our Community Development Centres and our clergy who also assisted in purchasing and distributing food to Muslims and Christians in need.

Finally, in all things, I would like to thank God for His faithfulness and His provision. We have clearly seen the Hand of God in our lives in this past year, and we know that God will not abandon us. He is our refuge and our strength.

May the Lord bless you,

+Mouneer
